ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

ASB Support

You can call the Police on 101 to report any Anti-Social Behaviour that is affecting your quality of life or that is upsetting or worrying you.

In an emergency call 999 and ask for the Police

ChildLine can offer support and advice to young people about any concerns or worries they have including being affected by Anti-Social Behaviour.

www.childline.org.uk

Victim Support can help young people affected by Anti-social behaviour.

ASB towards children and young people can include:

- Bullying and Cyber-bullying
- Harassment, threats of violence and intimidation
- Vandalism, graffiti and property damage

www.victimsupport.org.uk

Important: If you are being affected by Anti-Social Behaviour or you are being pressured to join in with others and you are worried you may get into trouble, tell your parents or your teacher so they can advise and help you.