WE'RE HERE TO HELP

Sometimes your night doesn't always go as planned.
Are you experiencing any of the following?

Unwanted attention/intimidating sexual advances

Verbal abuse

Persistent pestering

Feeling like your/or a friend's drink has been spiked

Losing your bag/phone/purse

Losing your friends/worrying about how you will get home safely

Please come and speak to a member of staff and tell us what has happened. We can help you – you're not on your own. Harassment isn't 'flirting', 'banter' or 'a laugh'. Also, if you see someone acting suspiciously or have concerns about someone's behaviour towards another, please let us know.

GOOD NIGHT OUT – INFO FOR STAFF

This is an initiative dedicated to raising awareness of sexual harassment /assault and helping the night time economy address, tackle and prevent this issue through a poster campaign and specialist training....to end sexual harassment and assaults in your venue.

JOIN US. WE WANT YOU TO...

Look out for the 'signs':

Paying a lot of attention to someone – especially towards a drunk person

Physical contact that is clearly unwanted

Verbal disagreements between people

Trying to get someone on their own away from friends

Acting secretive/suspicious around drinks

Anything that causes you concern

RAISE YOUR CONCERNS WITH SECURITY OR A MANAGER

In the ladies toilets there are posters advising them to seek assistance if they are feeling unsafe or have a problem.

Should someone approach you, you may wish to get a member of door staff to be with them if they are feeling vulnerable whilst they wait for a manager. Please do not leave them unattended or alone.
