A lifeline when someone disappears

We offer:

- Free, scheduled calls to support young people who have been away from home
- A confidential and non-judgmental space for them to discuss their experiences
- Referrals to other service providers, including safeguarding concerns
- Emotional support and practical advice for parents and carers

Refer a young person, parent or carer to this service by completing an online form or contacting the SafeCall team via email or telephone, ensuring you have consent to share your client's details with us.
